

Advancing Cultural Competence

In the Public Health & Health Care Workforce

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

ONLINE! FREE!

About the Certificate Program

The Advancing Cultural Competency Certificate Program is the first EVER online certificate program offering training in structural competence skills for the public health and health care workforce. ANYONE can take these online courses and receive continuing education credit for FREE.

What is Structural Competency Training?

Structural competency training widens the lens of traditional cultural competency by highlighting the ways in which broader social, political and economic mechanisms contribute to the vulnerability and ill health of the individuals and communities we serve.

Take ANY or ALL of the four Advancing Cultural Competence Certificate Series!

Does it Offer CE Credit?

Yes! ALL courses within the certificate series offer a combination of CNE, CME, CPH and/or CHES credit upon completion of a post-test. CREDITS ARE FREE!
